

Miltiades Michaelas

Managing Director, Alpha Bank Cyprus Ltd

He graduated from American Academy, Larnaca in 1985. He pursued a comprehensive education, combining studies in Management and Computer Science at Aston University with an MBA in Financial Studies from the University of Nottingham. He is a Chartered Director as awarded by the Institute of Directors (UK) and was also an Associate of the Chartered Institute of Bankers.

He served in a number of executive positions and boards of directors with Banks in different countries. He started his career in 1992 at Laiki Bank (Cyprus), where he held several roles for 7 years leading to the position of the Manager of Corporate and Institutional Banking, Nicosia. He then moved to Petrolina Group (1999 to 2001) where he held the position of the Group Financial Manager.

In 2001, he moved to Laiki Bank (Australia) Ltd, since renamed to Bank of Sydney, as General Manager, a post he held for 5 years. From 2006 until 2013 he worked at Laiki Bank (Cyprus) as the General Manager of International and Financial Services.

From 2013 to 2016 he served as the Director of International Operations and Real Estate Management Unit (REMU) at Bank of Cyprus. In 2016 he returned to Bank of Sydney and held the position of CEO until 2023.

In June 2023, he was appointed Managing Director of Alpha Bank Cyprus Ltd and an Executive Member of the Bank's Board of Directors.

ALPHA BANK