

Paola Castano

Managing Director at DP ULTRA LTD, Investment Consultants

Paola was born in Colombia and moved to Cyprus 20 years ago, building a successful career as an investment consultant. Her extensive experience in this industry has seen her hold positions in many established companies and develop her knowledge in subjects such as construction, finance, Cypriot legislation and client management.

Over the course of her career, Paola has grown the ability to understand the needs of potential investors, seeing every client as unique. She takes pride in identifying and putting forward tailor-made solutions for all the investors. Her dedication to her work drives her forward to achieve the best results for her firm and her clients.

For the past 3 years, she has held the position of the Director at DP Ultra Ltd Investment Consultants, working with a team of professional consultants & real estate investment firms in Larnaca. DP Ultra Ltd Investment Consultants provide services to local and foreign investors, helping them make capital investments and ensuring a stable future.

Paola is also involved in the Cyprus Permanent Residency (PR) scheme, as a senior consultant.

Finally, since Paola moved to Cyprus, she has not thought about moving anywhere else. She's taken her love for the island to her professional work and finds every opportunity to urge foreign investors to either invest, relocate or move to Cyprus.
