

The International Family Law Group LLP – Partner Biographies

Lucy Loizou

Lucy is the Managing Partner at iFLG. Lucy handles complex financial cases relating to divorce and separation and has worked on a number of matters involving high net worth assets often including an international element. She has particular expertise in dealing with difficult trust and corporate assets and in cases concerning financial provision for children under Schedule 1 Children Act 1989.

She works with the Greek and Cypriot community in England, having become the 'go to' family lawyer for Greek/Cypriot families.

She presents 'The Family Law Show' fortnightly on London Greek Radio and has done so for over 12 years. She writes for Parikiaki newspaper, various legal journals as well as lecturing to other family lawyers globally.

'Lucy Loizou is incredibly knowledgeable in her field. I have felt completely secure in her capable hands. She is down to earth, no nonsense, plain talking and yet super friendly. The Legal 500 2023
