

Ariel Dinovetzky

Lawyer, Founding Partner and Owner of BDOA & Co., Israel

Graduate of IDC Herzliya LLB in Law (summa laude, first in the track) and B.A. in government (summa laude, first in the track);

He has been admitted to the bar since 2006 and notary since 2018.

Adv. Ariel Dinovetzky is one of the few attorneys who combines proven ability and experience of over 15 years in both civil-commercial litigation and real estate, including urban renewal.

Adv. Dinovetzky began his professional career as an intern and associate at Dr. J. Weinroth & Co. Six years later, he was appointed as a partner, and served as a partner in this firm for another two years, during which he established the real estate department of Dr. J. Weinroth & Co. Subsequently, Adv. Dinovetzky, together with Prof. Avi Weinroth, established the law firm of Prof. Avi Weinroth & Co., where he managed the real estate department alongside the continued management of complex litigation cases in various fields.

In 2020, Adv. Dinovetzky joined forces with the entire team that worked with him and together they established Dinovetzky Bar & Co., which combines the worlds of civil-commercial litigation with accompanying real estate transactions and extensive activity in the field of urban renewal.

Adv. Dinovetzky has extensive experience in representing businessmen, corporations, and public figures in complex legal disputes before all judicial instances, as well as in arbitration.

Adv. Dinovetzky has accompanied complex litigation proceedings in the fields of real estate and planning and construction, including lawsuits for dissolution of partnerships, eviction claims of unregulated owners of real estate, various claims in the field of urban renewal including claims of recalcitrant tenants and more.

At the same time, Adv. Dinovetzky has accompanied prominent entrepreneurial companies in Israel and private real estate owners in many complex real estate transactions, including: sale, combination, urban renewal, evacuation-construction, Tama and land rights arrangements.
