

Andria Andreou

Managing partner of Athos Group Cyprus

Co-founder of Global Go representative office

President of the Cyprus Cannabis Association

Andria is a fully qualified UK lawyer, admitted to the Law Society of England & Wales and the Cyprus Bar Association; Managing partner of Athos Group Cyprus; co-founder of Global Go representative office and President of the Cyprus Cannabis Association.

She is a seasoned professional with a wealth of experience and knowledge gained in: advisory and consultancy services in the hemp, CBD and medicinal cannabis industry covering licensing, regulatory and business opportunities; corporate and commercial law; establishing and supporting wealth management and succession structures; proactive, solution driven, added value directorship services to companies and funds; management and corporate trust services for all types of cross-border corporate vehicles, structured finance vehicles, and corporate holding structures on behalf of institutional and private clients.

