

Marina Hadjimanolis

Shipping Deputy Minister to the President

Marina Hadjimanolis studied Law at the University of Leicester in the United Kingdom, where she was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Laws (LLB Hons). She was awarded the title Barrister at Law from the Inns of Court School of Law in London, as a member of Lincolns Inn in England. She is a member of the Cyprus Bar Association and the Limassol Bar Association. She practiced the law profession for many years.

She was elected as Municipal Councillor in Limassol Municipality from 2016 until her appointment as Shipping Deputy Minister in March 2023. As Municipal Councillor, she actively participated in numerous committees of the Municipality and was a member of the Board of Directors of various companies and organisations.

She was a founding member of the Youth Chamber of Commerce of Limassol, President of the Parents' Association in Primary Education, Member of the Federation of Parents' Associations and Guardians of Primary Schools of the city and District of Limassol and she is an active member of public and private charities of the city. She has received honorary awards for her social and charity work.

With her own contribution, a Blockchain application was implemented for the Municipality of Limassol for the first time, for the electronic issuance and authentication of documents of the Municipality, allowing the residents of Limassol to receive quality service in a digital environment.

Since 2021, she has been the first female honorary member of Europa Uomo Cyprus, where she pioneered in the campaign to raise awareness for prostate cancer.

During the 2023 presidential election campaign, she held the position of Director of the Political Office of the President-elect of the Republic of Cyprus, Nikos Christodoulides.

REPUBLIC OF CYPRUS
SHIPPING DEPUTY MINISTRY