

CHRISTOS EVRIPIDOU STEPS INTO COO ROLE AT TOTALSERVE GROUP

By TOTALSERVE Group

Christos Evripidou has been appointed as Chief Operating Officer at Totalserve Group, bringing over 20 years of experience in operations, banking and professional services.

Christos served for 21 years as a Premier Customer Unit Officer in the IBU department of Bank of Cyprus, whilst he specialized in compliance, due diligence and business development. He later transitioned to an international corporate services provider, advancing to Manager in Banking Liaison and Project Management where he oversaw operations and institutional relationships.

Commenting on the appointment, Totalserve Group CEO Petros Rialas stated, “This is a very important role as the Group continues to expand. Christos’s expertise will be instrumental in driving our strategic vision and strengthening our operations to meet growing client demands.”

Christos will work closely with the Group’s management and oversee daily operations to ensure alignment with the Group’s vision, goals and long-term plans. Moreover, and more generally he will drive the company’s operations and operational efficiency for process improvement and implementing best practices.

TOTALSERVE